East Norriton Township

Resolution No. 2000

A Resolution of the Township of East Norriton, Montgomery County, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, United States of America.

PROCLAMATION

A PROCLAMATION OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF EAST NORRITON TOWNSHIP PROCLAIMING " PROJECT BLUE LIGHT" DURING THE HOLIDAY SEASON TO HONOR FALLEN POLICE OFFICERS AS WELL AS THOSE PRESENTLY SERVING.

WHEREAS, in 1988 COPS "Concerns of Police Survivors" received a letter from Mrs. Dolly Craig of Philadelphia. Mrs. Craig stated she would be putting blue lights in her window during the holiday season. The lights would be to remember her son-in-law, Danny Gleason, a Philadelphia Police Officer who was killed in the line of duty in 1986.

WHEREAS, COPS shared the idea with others. Now thousands of blue lights shine nationwide during the holiday season to honor and remember those law enforcement officers who have given their lives in service to the profession. The blue lights also thank those officers who continue to work America's increasingly dangerous streets each and every day of the year.

WHEREAS, The East Norriton Township Police Department is requesting that the township and residents join with other municipalities throughout the country, in honoring our fallen police officers as well as those presently serving, by displaying a blue light in their window during the holiday season every year.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board of Supervisors of East Norriton Township do hereby proclaim East Norriton Township's participation in "PROJECT BLUE LIGHT," throughout the holiday season.

Proclaimed this 18th day of December, 2001.
