2.5.2 Vehicle Search

- A. Every time a prisoner is transported in a police vehicle, an opportunity arises for the introduction of contraband or weapons into that vehicle. Officers shall thoroughly search their patrol vehicles prior to and after transporting prisoners. This is in addition to inspecting the vehicle at the beginning and end of their shifts. (See G.O. 1.6.3 Care of Police Vehicles and Vehicle Equipment)
- B. All contraband or property seized from a transport vehicle shall be listed on a Property Form. The Shift Supervisor will be notified and the information shall be noted in the officer's Incident Report, or a Supplemental Report.
