

Legal Process

It is the policy of East Norriton Township Police Department to execute and make record of the various legal processes carried out by its officers. This directive establishes procedures for recording and executing legal processes by Officers of East Norriton Township Police Department.