

ORDINANCE #23

PROHIBITING PEDDLING WITHOUT A LICENSE, EMPOWERING THE TOWNSHIP SUPERVISORS TO MAKE REGULATIONS, AND PROVIDING PENALTIES FOR VIOLATIONS.

The Board of Supervisors of East Norriton Township, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania, does hereby ordain and enact as follows:

Section 1. Every transient merchant, peddler or solicitor engaged in the selling, soliciting or canvassing of goods, wares of things of value or the receiving of services or things of value, is forbidden to visit private places of business or residences without first having received from the Chief of Police of East Norriton Township, a license permitting such selling, soliciting or canvassing.

Section 2. The Board of Supervisors of East Norriton Township shall be empowered to make and provide such rules and regulations from time to time as may be necessary to supervise any such transient merchant, peddler or solicitor concerning the manner in which such person may engage in selling, soliciting and canvassing, the information required to obtain a license, the cost of such license fee, and any other proper and necessary regulation to protect the health, safety, welfare and morals of the citizens of East Norriton Township.

Section 3. Any such transient merchant, peddler, or solicitor who engages in the selling, soliciting or canvassing of goods as aforesaid without first having obtained a license from the Chief of Police of East Norriton Township or without having complied with such rules and regulations which may from time to time be imposed by the Supervisors of East Norriton Township, shall be guilty of violating this ordinance and subject to a fine of not less than Ten Dollars ($10.00) nor more than Fifty Dollars ($50.00) for each such offense and the costs of prosecution, or confined for three (3) days in the county prison, or both.
